JAMES K. MARTIN

Requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Lawrence Martyr Church for James Kent Martin, 52 of 3712 Via Palomino, Palos Verdes Estates, at 8:15 a.m. today. Rosary was recited last night at Halverson-Leavell Chapel.

Mr. Martin was born in Thief River Falls, Minn., and came to Torrance in 1949. He was the owner of Martins Market in Waveria.

He is survived by his widow, Dorothy; a son, James A. Martin of Torrance; two sisters, Margaret Martin of Hollywood, and Marion Beck of Wisconsin, and a granddaughter.

Interment will be in All Souls Cemetery.

CATHERINE A. MIDDLETON

Funeral services for Catherine Ann Middleton, 59, of 3323 Dalemead, were held at the Halverson-Leavell Chapel Tuesday morning. A resident of Torrance for the past 15 years, Mrs. Middleton was born in Los Angeles.

She is survived by her husband, Charles Middleton of Torrance, and a sister, Grace Miller of Manhattan Beach.

Interment was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

MARIE E. DOUGLAS

Funeral services for Marie Elizabeth Douglas, 69, of 5828 Crescent Ave., Buena Park, will be held at the Stone and Myers Chapel at 1 p.m. today with the Rev. Robert Dehn of the First Baptist Church of Torrance officiating.

A beautician, Mrs. Douglas lived in Torrance at one time and had many friends here. She died in Torrance Sunday.

She is survived by a son, I. R. Rader, of Buena Park; and a brother, B. H. Hosmann of Washington.

Interment will be in Acacia Cemetery, Lake City, Wash.

Ortale Names New Service, Parts Chiefs

Appointment of two department managers for Al Ortale Rambler was announced by the agency this week.

Cliff Carroll has been named service manager and Mel Day has been named parts manager.

Both of these men are specialists in their respective fields in the automotive industry, a company executive said when making the announcement of the appointments.

Service departments are located at 20710 Hawthorne Ave. and at 1885 Torrance Blvd., in the Downtown Torrance area.

A courtesy pickup wagon has been put in service for persons wanting to leave their cars at one of the two Ortale locations for service. The wagon will make regular runs throughout the area beginning at 7:45 a.m. and continuing at intervals until 5:30 p.m.

The large Hawthorne Avenue service department is open from 7:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. daily and until noon on Saturday. The department is open until 9 p.m. each Monday.

Food Fair Celebrates Arrival Here

Food Fair Markets are marking the opening of their Torrance store with a gigantic arrival celebration which will see some 1,500 persons carry home lucky tickets.

The markets are now conducting a sale and as part of the celebration will hold six weekly drawings for prizes that range from baskets of groceries to hair dryers, clock radios, and mink stoles.

To be eligible, patrons need only drop a coupon into the basket at the local market. Winners are announced each Tuesday morning.

Winning names for the mink stoles will be selected Monday, Feb. 24 at each of Food Fair's nine stores. Everyone wants to own a mink, so be sure to get your name into the drawing.

DOES GETTING UP NIGHTS MAKE YOU FEEL OLD

After 36, common kidney or bladder irritations often occur and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent urination both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CRYSTEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in urine, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. CRYSTEX 24 DRUGISTS. Feel better fast.

ORAN C. TOTTEN

Private interment was scheduled this week for Oran C. Totten, 73, of 3433 W. 183rd St., who died in Temple City last Friday. Mr. Totten, a salesman, had lived in the Torrance area for 40 years. Arrangements were handled by Stone and Myers Mortuary.

JOSEPH KEY THOMPSON

Funeral services for Joseph Key Thompson, 51, of 2355 W. Lomita Blvd., Lomita, were held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2 with the Rev. Arthur Nagel, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Torrance, officiating. Mr. Thompson, an electrician, had lived in the Torrance area for 35 years. He died Sunday in Long Beach Veterans Hospital.

He is survived by his widow, Kay; his mother, Mrs. Hazel Cochrane of Lomita; and a sister, Betty Pearce, also of Lomita.

Cremation was at Roosevelt Memorial Park.

WAVING HELLO . . . Part of the large crowd which was on hand last week for the second of six weekly drawings at Food Fair Market is pictured here. A total of 1,521 prizes, ranging from $10 in groceries to small appliances and mink stoles, will be given away by the market during its arrival celebration. No purchase is necessary to register for the weekly drawings.
